LANGLEY & CO. T STORY 192

The good people of New Westminster have had a meeting, and the Hon Henry has aired his rhetoric with the most convincing effect upon his auditory. He indeed is a lucky man, and his audience is doubtless satisfied that they have done their daty to the Province as well as to themselves. But we must say that the resolution that was passed at the meeting did not say much. It supported the "old war-horse;" but it did not hazard a word about the McCreight Ministry. The good sense of the Westminsteriass could not allow them to est their own words with the gusto that the Hon. Henry swallowed his utterances CLINTON FLOURING MILLS. made at the time of his re-election. On that occasion, he told his constituents that he was to be Chief Commissioner. At the recent meeting, he had the un blashing effrontery to tell his constituents that he had previously agreed with his Premier to vacate the office of Chief Commissioner as soon as the senior member for Cariboo was elected. Truly the edecation supplied by the Liverpool Corn Exchange produces extraordinary results on the banks of the Fraser! If such be the course adopted in the Liverpool Corn Exchange, we are greatly mistaken. We would rather believe that such a want of veracity would not be tolerated amongst gentlemen anywhere. How a gentleman who makes such high professions as Mr. McCreight, can endorse the falsifications of his colleague, we don't know. Possibly the public are prepared to put their own value on Mr. McCreight's professions hereafter; certainly never put the least reliance on the Hon. Henry's utterances. In the interest of the country at large, it is fortunate that he has only been used as a warming-pan, and has been removed from office; for who from one end of the Province to the other would now believe a single word CHOICEST that might fall from his lips, were he unfortunately Chief Commissioner. The old saying that a person of a certain ilk is not to be believed though he speakthe truth, is verified in the case of the Hon. Henry. In the Herald's report of his speech he said : "He had accepted his seat because he thought his duty to the country required him to do so. The opposition with which his ap-pointment had been met he considered a compliment, as it arose from his known hostility to Victoria's policy of centralization." Wes there ever such twaddle? If it was his duty to accept, was it his duty also to deceive the public by a false statement? Next be said :

"He believed the Cabinet should be supported, and he knew it would command a good working majority in the House. They did not so much attend to the utterances of a few politicians, as to the voice of the people. Should the present Cabinet be thrown out of power it would be a great misfortune, as the country would be "blocked"

The "yarn" about the Cabinet baving IMPLEMENTS. a working majority, we fear will soon be put down as a Holbrook sm—to use no more expressive term. But the statement that if the present Ministry were put out, it would "block" the country for a year is sheer unmitigated nonsense. There need not be a delay of two weeks to re-elect all the members of a new Ministry who might take office. But the Hon. Henry can draw the long bow ; but who believes him? According to the Guardian's report the Hon. Henry appeared at the meeting, but avowed that he did not come there as "a Cabinet Minister or even as a representative of New Turner, Beeton & Tunstall Westminster, but simply as a resident of the district desirous of taking part in the discussion that vitally interested the en-tire province." Now was there ever such a political exhibition before? Was he ashamed or afraid to acknowledge himself a Cabinet Minister? or a representative? Why did he not say at LIFE ASSURANCE once, "I appear as the warming-pan of Mr. Walkem?" Poor Mr. McCreight? His first Chief Commissioner was ashamed or afraid to acknowledge himself. What about the last? The reason given for HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF BUCCLEUCH AND QUEENSBERRY, K. G. ointment of Mr. Robertson is capital. He was made, says Mr. Private Resident Holbrook, Provincial Secretary because he had distinguished himself at the University in Canada, and bad studied law with an able barrister! Were there ever such reasons given before for makinc a minister? One minhs here

One might have expected that his public services or political ability ought to have caused him to be smart boy at school and had read law in the office of a good lawyer. But fortunately we have got out the secret of the appointment. But what a capital joke is the Hon. Henry's account of his own appointment! Hear him. He said that he was chosen "as a member of the Cabinet without a portfolio from his being the senior member of the Council," and,—hear him—"and also from his having had fifteen years experience in the Liverpool Corn Exchange where he he was not unknown." There now Mr.

She was sailing to the ladies when the Hollanders organized themselves into the "Beggars of the Sea," and as privateersmen earned a reputation which as-tenished the world. DR. CHING FUN-A CARD-EDITOR STANDARD:—Through the medium of your paper I want to state the very great good that has been done me by Dr. Ching Fun of this city, nxet door Kwong Lee & Co. For 24 years I suffered with neuralgia on the brain, which buffled the skull of three first-class American physicians. Latterly bronchitis attacked my right lung, and my sy c became awfully inflamed. Despairing of ever binger ued I placed myself as a last resort in the hands of Dr. Ching Fun, and after five months treatment I am a well man and feel that I cannot sound the eminent Chinese gentleman's praises too loudly, o that all my countrymen similarly affecteed may visit and find relief, Respectfully.
